OUR TELEGRAPHIC REPORT IS LIGHT THIS MORNING, owing to the line being down across Black River.

PRESERVING THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTRY.

Notwithstanding the defection of a few leading journals and prominent members of the regular administration of the Democratic party, indicate an unabated determination to preserve the party and their friends, as their spokesmen—in consequence of the tightness on the conservative right of that name, they seem to be making extensive efforts to the next best preventive of generalization.

This accounts, we presume, for the retreating eagles of some of the publications of the Copperhead press, to wit: that of the World a few days ago which professes to feel great apprehension that Mr. Lincoln's administration should conclude a Division Peace and call upon the Democratic party to present such a dreadful catastrophe.

We know of nothing equal to this in the recorded history of iniquity and we can imagine nothing in the domain of which would parallel it unless we might fancy the impious Arnold supplementing his traitorous address to the people of the colonies by declaring it a罪恶 that Washington was bent on subjugating America to the yoke of Great Britain and calling upon the Tories to rise in their might and prevent such a consummation.

There is enough in this to keep the Democratic party in a tolerable state of preservation, at least till war weather sets in.

Had all the States participated in the recent Presidential election, and excepting all the rebel States to Metellan, the result could not have been different.

The States which voted for Mr. Lincoln in the recent election, cast 213 votes in the electoral college. The States which went for McClellan cast 21 votes. If all the rebel States had voted for Mr. McClellan, he would have received 94 electoral votes, leaving Mr. Lincoln a majority of 110.

The St. Paul Tribune says:

The newest spiced coffee brought from Austria, Turkey, and Brazil, Park, Esq., of Madison, for the Judgment of the 7th Judicial District, was settled on the 24th ult.

The States which voted for Mr. Lincoln in the recent election, cast 213 votes in the electoral college. The States which went for McClellan cast 21 votes. If all the rebel States had voted for Mr. McClellan, he would have received 94 electoral votes, leaving Mr. Lincoln a majority of 110.

Mr. Austin was the Union candidate.

He succeeded. Judge Brauner, the present democratic incumbent, Emerit. Chief Justice of the old regime, and Brauner are the last of the Molesworth. When they go out of office in January next, the entire District and Supreme benches will be filled with good Union men.

—Sarah Jane Smith, of Washington county, Ark., is under sentence of death at St. Louis, and is to be hanged on Friday next, on a charge of waging for miles of Government, rebellion, and treason. Miss Smith is about seven years of age. A very large crowd of no communists or rebels will be at the gallows. It is impossible that the military authorities are determined by a terrible example to teach this class of spine in their right and prevent such a consummation.

There is enough in this to keep the Democratic party in a tolerable state of preservation, at least till war weather sets in.

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

MEMBERS of the Ninth Minnesota
Benefit of the Sanitary Commission
List of Deaths.

Minneapolis, Nov. 15, 1864.

Correspondence to a few men in reference to the 9th Minnesota Regiment, together with a list of deaths that have occurred since we landed here the 1st of June.

To the movements of the regiment you have been posted from time to time. On the 2d of September the first division of the 16th army corps left for Arkansas. Being unable at the time I remained with the convalescent camp, numbering with those in General Hovey about 2000. After the regiment left Braswells, Ark., in pursuit of Gen. Price, I learned that some 70 of our men were left sick at Duvall's Bluff and Little Rock; also, that the number of sick from the whole division left at that point reached nearly 500. On the 2d of September I started for Little Rock to ascertain the comfort of our men, taking a good supply of sanitary stores for the convalescents of the division. The trip up the White River to Duvall's Bluff had been very severe on the men, the weather warm and the water bad. Diarrhea and dysentery prevailed generally. At Little Rock I found some 250 in convalescent camp with inclemencies, and the balance in the General Hospital. My sanitary supplies were most acceptable and most opportune. The men were very grateful and expressed their gratitude to the good friends that, through the Sanitary Commission, are doing so much and so generously for the comfort of the soldiers. Had any been present they would have felt that their gifts were highly appreciated by the recipients of their generosity. The Sanitary Commission is doing a noble work through their agencies in cheering the hearts and meeting the wants of thousands of our noble and suffering soldiers. May the benedictions of Heaven rest upon these donors throughout the North, and as the end is not yet, may their hearts devise and their hands execute still more generous things for the suffering in our army and the suffering at home.

Our regiment had a weary march from Brownsville, Ark., to Cape Girardeau on the Mississippi river, a distance of some 350 miles, mostly through a rough and desolate country. I can give no incidents of his march. Since then the division has been doing service at different points in Missouri. It is now ordered to Paducah, Ky., where I understand, a large force is concentrating. The late movements of Hood and Forrest require a new disposition of our forces. The camps here are under orders to move this week to Paducah. In a day or two we expect to leave and once more our regiment will be brought together, but ah! it is not the regiment it was when we landed here last June. When we get together I fear we will not number more than half had when we left Minnesota, but half over one year ago. Many are suffering the horrors of Andersonville, Georgia; some sleep 'neath the sod far south of this—some in Missouri—some in Mississippi—some in Tennessee—some in Arkansas. A stranger hand directs the letter that brings sorrow and darkness to many a home. Aching hearts will no more receive the welcome message that so often cheered them. God, comfort the widow and the orphans.

I send a list of the deads not previously reported for the Press, that have occurred at Memphis and other points since we left Missouri:

The Sanitary Fair.

Editor St. Paul Jr. 88.

In the recent account published of the proceedings of the Committees for the Sanitary Fair, it is said: "The Sanitary and Christian Committees fully 'turn out' on it so well." We can afford to let the help of men in preparing for this Fair. All are helpful. It is desired that all should help, care should be taken to introduce the plan of operations, or the objects of the Fair, to the public, and to render a large part of our Church members from rendering the assistance which will be expected of them. There are a great number of Catholics in St. Paul, who would doubtless be heartily glad to do all in their power to forward the intentions of the Committee as to relieving the physical wants of the poor, and to help in the collection of funds, and to do all that is possible to help the sick and the infirm. A FRIEND TO THE FAIR.

Orders.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 25.—Detractors who came into our lines from Richmond yesterday, said a report prevailed there that Sherman captured Macon last Tuesday. The war rebels are employing every means in their power to check Sherman's advance. This is confirmed by accounts in the Richmond papers.

Forces Maxout, Nov. 24.—The steamer Atlantic and Blackstone arrived this forenoon. They left the Savannah river on the 23rd instant. The Baltic was landing when she left. The exchange of prisoners was going on well. General Gary says that, when Macon and Milledgeville were burned, the Legislature was in session at Milledgeville, but was dissolved, and the members had scattered in every direction.

The following is taken from the Savannah, Nov. 24, 21st instant:

BRADGARD'S DISPATCH.

To the People of Georgia.

CONY, NOV. 18, VIA SELMA 15.—Arise, for the defense of your native government and your children! Obstruct and destroy all roads to Sherman's banks and rear, and his confidence—be resolute. Trust in an overruling Providence, and success will soon crown your efforts.

(Signed) T. G. BEAUREGARD.

ADDRESS OF THE GEORGIA DELEGATES.

To the People of Georgia.

NOV. 15.—We have had a special conference with President Davis and the Secretary of War, and are able to assure you that they have done all they can to meet the emergency that presses upon you. Let every man to arms, every negro, horse, cart, and wagon, and every vessel from Sherman's arms, and burn bridges and burn the road up the river, by night and by day, and we will do no more.

(Signed) J. L. PAINTER,

J. H. REYNOLD,

J. G. N. R. ELLIST,

JOHN H. HOMER,

JAMES M. SMITH.

I most cordially approve the same.

(Signed) J. C. CONFEDERATE SECRETARY OF WAR.

FROM AUGUSTA, GA.

The following is from the Augusta Chronicle of the 19th inst.:

"A true and reliable rumor on our streets this morning is one that Griffin is captured by the Yankees. As to the correctness of the rumor we have to wait for the 20th."

The following is taken from the Augusta Chronicle of the 19th inst.:

"We have this reliable news from up the river: A gentleman who arrived on Thursday evening from Stone Mountain, reports that the Yankee column moving down the Georgia railroad divided at Decatur, and going down the Covington road, to Macon. They had occupied all the unoccupied houses, some two-thirds of the town, and were laying waste the country as they progressed. They march in a hollow square, with their trains behind them. They stayed at Macon's Mill, near Covington, and it is not known as yet whether they will strike for Eatontown or Athens."

The gentleman says that the view from the top of the hill, Eatontown, a considerable portion of Atlanta was visible.

The gate City looked like an ocean of flame as the fiery waves rose and fell throughout its whole extent.

About 100 Yankees already made their appearance at Eatontown on Thursday and were burning the railroad platform.

It is not believed that they have come down any further than the Circle.

Their infantry encamped at or near Old Sherman's camp last night. It is also reported that the rebels, who had crossed the river, had force marched to Eatontown.

It is very evident that they design to capture the Central Railroad and Gordon or some other point. Passenger trains on the Georgia railroad yesterday only came from Union Point.

MACON, GA., Nov. 19.—The Military authorities are active and vigilant, and every man is under arms, and confidence is being restored. The enemy are believed to be on our right, distant about 30 miles. The city will be defended to the last.

FROM MACON.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 21.—A private dispatch received in this city this morning from Atlanta, says that the rebels crossed the Ocmulgee, and force marched to Eatontown, eight miles east of Indian Springs. They are to be from 30,000 to 40,000 strong. This will seem to strengthen the belief that Atlanta is the next objective of the Central Railroad near Greenville, and will be at three o'clock p.m. on the 20th. The telegraph is also destroyed. Communication between Savannah and Macon is destroyed and the wires between Gordon and Milledgeville are cut also.

AN APPEAL TO THE GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Friday, Nov. 25.—The American, of this city, has the following highly interesting and exciting intelligence, taken from late Georgia papers:

The Augusta, (Ga.) Chronicle of the 19th inst., contains the following appeal to the Georgians by the Confederate Senator:

To the People of Georgia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 18, 1864.—You have now the best opportunity ever yet presented to you to destroy the enemy. Put everything at the disposal of our Generals. Remove all provisions from the path of the invaders, and put all the destruction you can in his way. Every iron, every spike, every piece of wood, every spade and axe, you can destroy the enemy by retarding his march. Georgians be firm, act promptly and bear not.

(Signed) D. H. HILL.

The Macon Telegraph of Friday, the 18th, says that city on that day was considerably excited owing to various rumors in regard to the enemy, who are known to be positively marching the city.

General Cobb has issued an order calling out every man capable of bearing arms, and all who do not respond he has ordered to be arrested.

The Telegraph further says there is no doubt that the military authorities will do all in their power to defend the city against the enemy, who we trust they will receive the cordial support of the entire community. We refrain from giving information concerning the movement of the rebels, as we are told that the rebels were out of town, and the State of Mississippi, a prominent General in our service, has full knowledge of Sherman's present movement, admitting that report speaks truly, and that it is the key to his actual destination. The abandonment of the Chattachoochee base camp, during the march to the coast for a new base, and to effect in this way the coveted severance of the Atlantic States from the Gulf States. Whether that object is now attained, we are not yet in a position to tell.

THE CITY.
THE CITY SCRIP FORGERY.

Continuation of the Examination Last Evening.

Testimony of the State Concluded.

The Forged Scrip in Circulation and How It Can be Detected.

The examination of William Von Hamm, charged with having forged and uttered city scrip, was continued last evening. The attendance of spectators was larger than on Monday night. The testimony for the State was concluded, and we give a full report of it.

THE SCRIP IN CIRCULATION.

Mayor Stewart informs us that there are but about two hundred dollars of the forged scrip in circulation, so that there is no occasion for alarm and total refusal of the scrip. Nearly fifty dollars of the amount is now in the hands of the prosecuting attorney.

The principal peculiarities by which the forged paper can be detected are in the signature of the Mayor, J. H. Stewart, and the Comptroller, Henry Schifflauer. Dr. Stewart makes his J. with two strokes, the first being like a small j, and after writing the rest of his he makes the top of the J. In the forged, the J is made very plainly without the pen being removed. When crossing the If Dr. Stewart continues the stroke of the pen upwards and forms a portion of the S. In the forged the S is not connected with the H. The general appearance of the name in the forged note is that it was written slowly and with great care and in the genuine it has the appearance of being written easily and rapidly. The letters are much more accurately formed in the forged than in the genuine.

The distinguishing feature of Mr. Schifflauer's, the Comptroller, signature is that the forgeries are written in a much heavier hand than the genuine. Mr. Schifflauer's general signature is in a light hand, but a trifle heavier than Dr. Stewart's.

It should be borne in mind that there are $114 which were stolen after the Mayor and City Clerk had signed them, so that upon those Mr. Schifflauer's is the only name forged. These bills are all dated Sept. 10, 1864. There are genuine bills of the same date in circulation, so that it is not positive proof that a bill is forged because it is dated September 10.

A notice of our city bankers, published elsewhere, states that the genuine scrip will be received by them at par.

A CORRECTION.

In our notice of this matter yesterday we stated that Mr. Von Hamm performed the duty of the office while Mr. Lineson was Comptroller. This, Mr. Lineson informs us, was an error, as he only occupied him the last two weeks of his term while preparing his report.

The following is the continuation and conclusion of the testimony for the State.

BERNARD MACHETTE, SWORN.

Reside in city; am an upholsterer; paid a piece of scrip to Frank Werner, about two weeks ago; don't know if he is the one Werner; I received it in Sanderson's saloon; he can't identify the scrip positively. [Two other witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. Werner, who said he was the one that Mr. Werner had shewed him and said that he (Machette) had given it to him.]

Cross-examined.—Don't know whether this is the scrip you received; the last money paid in was in honoring a draft which he drew on me in Milwaukee, some two months ago; don't think this was the scrip you received; the amount of money paid to him several times; somewhere from $50 to $100 have been paid him within the last three months; do not know if he ever paid any difference into the bank; paid him at one time $100 in city scrip; it was very probable that whenever he paid him any money he paid him in city scrip.

Re-examined.—The $100 in scrip was paid him in the same scrip; the last money paid in was in honoring a draft which he drew on me in Milwaukee, some two months ago; don't know if he ever paid any difference into the bank; paid him at one time $100 in city scrip; it was very probable that whenever he paid him any money he paid him in city scrip.

JACOB MARTY, SWORN.

Know Frank Werner; received one dollar bill of city scrip to Mr. Werner, two or three weeks ago; would know if I saw it; it is the only scrip I remember giving him; don't know where it came from; it is the project of his passing away.

No cross-examination.

JOHN G. SUNDENBERG, SWORN.

Know Frank Werner; don't recall receiving a piece of scrip to him about which there was any question; he would remember giving him one dollar scrip to Mr. Werner, about which there was some doubt; remember the check he gave him; don't know where it came from; don't know where it went.

No cross-examination.

F. X. PEYER, SWORN.

An employee of Mr. Schifflauer's, remember that Mr. Schifflauer's scrip book in Schifflauer's shop some time ago; the fireman's name; he asked me to see Mr. Schifflauer; I told him to give the book to Mr. Schifflauer; he said to sign it; I took it and put it in the safe; don't know how long it was before Mr. Schifflauer came for it; I don't know when he came back before dinner; when he did come back I took the door when I go to dinner.

Cross-examined.—The book that was left looked like one of these here; books were left in the safe; I don't know if it was at work there since the 25th of August except and an apprentice who worked there about that time; I don't know if he took the books away; I was there all the time except when I had gone to dinner; there was a draw in the safe; which is a safe lock; I only remember this time certain when this book was brought there; it might have been there.

HENRY SCHIFFLAUER, RECALLED.

Received the scrip book of the day the first time I saw it; it is the day between now and to day; I found it in my safe when I came in; Peyer told me Mr. Stewart had gone to him; he had left the books; took the books and went to dinner at a City Hall. [The witness then gave the same testimony as published yesterday; I received a two dollar bill from Mr. Werner and Sanderson; have it with me. [Witness here brought there; it might have been there.

produced it and swore that the signature on it belonged to his wife genuine. The signature purports to be his on the bill produced by Mr. Webb; were his pronounced forged by the witness.]

JOHN SMITH, SWORN.

Have been in the same place saying; I remember it Mr. Von Hamm, brought me a scrip book between nine and eleven on the day of the Fireman's parade; he came in and said to me, "I have a bill of city scrip; he said to me, "he said here, take this book and let us go down to the California saloon and take a look at the door and went to the saloon; we came back and went up stairs and I took the book and gave it to Mr. Von Hamm and I gave the book to Mr. Von Hamm.

Cross-examined.—As I remember it Von Hamm left the book with me; he carried the book up stairs, us in about five minutes came back and went down stairs when he left it with me; don't leave my door open when I go away; it is my fashion to lock the door.

J. H. CLEVELAND, RECALLED.

(A one dollar scrip was handed the witness, which he identified and stated he received it from Mr. Rodde, saloon keeper, this morning.)

MEETING OF FAIR COMMITTEES.

Proceedings of the Executive and Other Committees.

Gov. Miller Presents a Sword for Suffrages.

The Minnesota Officer set Above the Bank of Colonel who Receives the Most Votes will Win the Trophy.

The greater portion of the committees appointed for the Sanitary Fair met yesterday for the transaction of business and we give report of their proceedings.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The full attendance at this Committee was very encouraging. Out of the twenty members but two were absent, and one of those persons was out of town and the other was engaged with another committee.

It was unanimously resolved to adopt the suggestion of the sub-committee and retain all the proceeds of the Fair for use at home.

The Committee appointed to secure the Fair reported in favor of the ones in Mackubin's block and the report was adopted. Mrs. Mackubin generously tendered the use of Mozart Hall free of charge and the Musical society pursued the same course.

The Committee of six which appointed the general committees on Monday, reported the names which have previously published. Their report was adopted and the Secretary was instructed to request these Committees to meet and organize immediately and report progress to the Executive Committee at 10 A. M. next Wednesday.

C. H. Oakes was appointed a committee of one to arrange for lighting the rooms.

It was voted to allow the Committee on Entertainments to decide their own programme without instructions, but they are to report to the Executive Committee for approval.

Mr. Gordon, the committee appointed to wait on the Musical Society, reported that the Society would give a lead on Concert during the Fair week. A vote of thanks was returned to the Society.

The Committee adjourned to meet at the Capitol at 10 A. M. next Wednesday, the President being authorized to call them together sooner if it was necessary.

THE SOLICITING COMMITTEE.

Met agreeable to appointment and organized, by choosing Mrs. J. C. Burbank Chairman, and Mrs. Wm. J. Smith, Secretary. We are indebted to the Secretary for the following report:

"It was resolved to proceed at once to earnest work in their several wards. They desire to secure not only donations of money, but all kinds of merchandise, every variety of needle-work, both useful and beautiful, large quantities of good things for the tables, and whatever may be suitable for the Fair; and it is believed that the pride, the patriotism and the welfare of our citizens will prompt them to give to this Committee cordially and liberally."

"In order that the enthusiasm of the children in the city be thoroughly roused and wisely directed, there are appointed to have special charge of the children's gifts, the following young ladies, two from each ward:

FIRST WARD.

Miss H. Hoyt, Miss Fulkerson.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Finance Committee of the Sanitary Fair met, pursuant to adjournment, at the office of John S. Prince. Present: J. E. Thompson, Chairman; John S. Prince, Charles Nichols, John A. Peckham. The committee fully organized by the appointment of John A. Peckham, as Secretary. The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That it being necessary to place funds in the hands of the Purchasing Committee of the Sanitary Fair, for the immediate

THE PURCHASING COMMITTEE.

Is particularly requested to meet at the Library Room at 10 o'clock to-morrow (Friday) morning. As many eleven hundred dollars will be paid at the disposal of the Committee for the purchase of raw material, it is important for them to have complete operations immediately.

First Ward—Mrs. Beulah Thompson, Miss Steele.

Second Ward—Mrs. W. P. Murray, Mrs. J. C. Burbridge.

Third Ward—Mrs. John Nichols, Mrs. Edward Heenan.

Fourth Ward—Miss Eliza Thompson, Mrs. E. C. Cobb.

Fifth Ward—Miss Fanny Webb, Mrs. John Prince.

WHO WINS THE SWORD?

A short time before Governor Miller left the army, the non-commissioned officers of the Seventh Regiment presented him with a sword, sash and belt, valued at one hundred dollars. The Governor has presented this to the Fair and it will be given to the Minnesota officer not above the rank of Colonel, (as it is a Colonel's sword) who receives the largest number of votes. The price for a vote has not been fixed but a committee has been appointed for that purpose.

DUTY OF COMMITTEES.

We cannot too strongly urge upon all the committees the necessity for prompt organization and action. On their efforts depends the success of the undertaking. Nearly all the committees are already in working trim and should allow the time to come to a crisis without being compelled to act. They should remember that they are to report to the Executive Committee next Wednesday.
